Please write up your answers in this file using the space provided, generate a PDF version named “final-yourPID.pdf”, and upload it here on Canvas by the deadline shown here. Note the page limits for answers that appear in each question. Please be concise.

Because of the open-book nature of this examination, you may use any information sources at your disposal (the course text, other text books, the web, journal articles, etc.). However, you may not ask any other person for assistance in answering any examination questions (whether or not they are involved in the class). Space is provided on the last page of the exam for you to provide citations for any quotations or significant ideas in your answers that are taken from other sources, although you should feel free to leave that section blank if all material is entirely your own. There is also no need to specifically cite references mentioned in the questions themselves.
